

OH LADY

(written by Randy Kartchner & Kenneth Cope)

Exotic places, other men's faces
So hard for you to settle down
And just when I'm thinking
You're ready and willing
You catch another plane out of town

CHORUS:

*Oh, lady - you've talked a lot of changin'
Just waiting for the right time - oh, ya
But lady, we've reached an ultimatum
Oh, lady - it's time!*

You keep reappearing, but still you're not hearing
You're all wrapped up in reverie
But now is the time - truth is our lifeline
Baby, won't you tell it to me

*Oh, lady - you use to talk of changin'
Just waiting for the right time - oh, ya
But lady, we've reached an ultimatum
Oh, lady - it's time!*

*Oh, lady - I'm waitin' for changin'
Tell me it's the right time - oh, ya
Lady, is love our destination
Oh, lady - be mine*

I have fallen for you
Have you fallen for me
Tell me, lady
