

THE BEST FOR LAST

(written by Kenneth Cope)

Tommy's into trouble, somethin's goin' down
Ronnie's right behind him headin' out of bounds
Looks like they're throwin' in the towel

They've gathered up an army and don't intend to hide
They're comin' by to turn you, take ya for a ride
They no longer think it's worth the fight
But so many wrongs don't make a right
Besides, you're wanting heaven on your side
So...

CHORUS:

*Don't let up, don't give in
Try to hang tough
You can't let them get you
(Can't do that)
Make your mind up, do what He asks
You've got what it takes
So you were saved for the last*

You hope you have the courage to steer from the wrong
But you're scared of the pressure
You fear you're gonna fall
You want to do what you've been taught
You're set on givin' it your all
But what if you're backed against a wall?
Well...

REPEAT CHORUS

Heaven is dependin' on you
To stand up out in front
You're the ones who've come to lead the way
And that's a lot to ask of anyone
But you're not just anyone
