

FACE TO FACE

(written by Kenneth Cope)

If the earth could give its witness
All creation shout its praise
If the continents and oceans
Spoke to man of their devotion
Would mortals doubt Him so
If all were now made known?

If the faithless of the ages
Were to feel His healing power
If the eyes and ears He opened
Might be theirs for just a moment
Would it soften hearts of stone
If He were truly known?

Face to face
So few were in that place
When heaven sent Messiah
To reclaim this fallen race

If I could stand atop the mountains
And sound His name in every ear
If I had power to tell His story
Like the angels have before me
Would more sins be swept away
If the world could sense the debt He paid?

Face to face
I'll seek Him all my days
He means more than life to me
Death can't take that away

But if I can't convince a world
Then perhaps I'll reach a soul
As I tell of how He's changed me
And how I wait for Him to take me
Then I'll worship on my knees
And kiss once wounded feet

Though He knows of my praise
One day I'll tell Him
Face to face
